The Fitchburg Historical Society was founded by James F.D. Garfield in 1892, the Fitchburg Historical Society is an independent non-profit that was created to collect, preserve, and interpret the history of Fitchburg. The Society hosts lectures, debates and annual events relating to the city's history. In January 2016, they will present Researching the Underground, an exhibition about Fitchburg's abolitionists and the underground railroad.
